Mission

Three Rivers Velo Sport (3RVS) is created to promote the general interest and enjoyment of bicycling for health, recreation and economical transportation. To this end, 3RVS will facilitate and conduct tours, outings and races, promote better bicycle riding conditions, and will advocate and advance proper riding techniques.

Articles of Operation

1.0 Membership

1.1 Requirements

Membership in 3RVS is contingent upon completion of an approved membership application and payment of applicable dues in full for the calendar year to one of the membership categories as described below:

Individual - Individual membership is available to individual who properly completes an application for membership. Applicants under eighteen (18) years of age must have the signature of one parent or guardian on the membership application.

Family - Family membership is available to all persons maintaining the same legal residence. At least one member of a family as described above must be at least eighteen (18) years of age.

Organizational - An organization may apply for membership to 3RVS, by completing an application. An organizational membership entitles the member entity to receive the club newsletter, and enters the organization onto the official 3RVS roster. An Organizational membership does not entitle any employees to individual or family membership.

Any or all membership rights and/or privileges, including those conferred by other organizations based upon membership in 3RVS, may be suspended or revoked as to any person who violates any of the policies set forth in this document or its accompanying Bylaws. Such suspension or revocation shall only be by agreement of at least five (5)

Board members, and only following a meeting of the Board of Directors of which the person whose rights and/or privileges are in question was given reasonable notice and opportunity to state his/her position to the board.

1.2 Voting Privileges

Membership voting privileges are granted to all active individual and family members at least fifteen (15) years of age whose dues are paid in full for the current calendar year by the night of the vote in question. These privileges apply to the election of officers as well as to general issues brought before the membership during a regular meeting.

2.0 Meetings

Regular meetings shall be conducted monthly at the time and place established in the 3RVS Bylaws. These meetings shall be conducted by the President or another member of the Board of Directors as designated by the President. In addition to the program, the meeting shall include a report to the membership of the activities of 3RVS and its Board of Directors, and an opportunity for members to make proposals, suggestions, requests or inquiries.

3.0 Officers

3.1 Election

An election of club officers shall take place every year at the first meeting of the calendar year. Nominations for elected positions shall be accepted anytime between the December meeting and the end of the calendar year immediately preceding the election. A member in good standing as described in Article 1.2 Voting Privileges may nominate no more than one member per office for each of the offices described below in this article. Any active member may nominate another active member (including himself or herself) to any of the offices. If the nominee accepts the nomination, he/she is placed on the ballot for the coming year. If only one nominee is received for an office, then no vote is required. All candidates for an office must be at twenty-one (21) years of age. The following positions shall be elected on a yearly basis:

President
Secretary
Treasurer
Touring Director
Racing Director
Off Road Director
Newsletter Editor
Publicity Director
Membership Director

Elected officers shall assume the duties of their positions as soon as the results of the election are known, and will continue in that position until a replacement is chosen. In the event an officer resigns, or is removed by a vote of six (6) board members, a special election for that office shall be held at the next regular club meeting, provided there is time to announce such an election in the newsletter preceding the meeting. With the exception of the office of President and until a Special Election can be conducted, an officer's vacancy as described in this paragraph may temporarily be filled by appointment of the President. In addition to the elected officer positions, the President may appoint various chairpersons and/or committees on an ad hoc basis. The President shall assume ex-officio status on all appointed committees.

3.2 Office of Vice-President

Effective January 1, 2017, the Vice President will be nominated and elected by the newly elected Board of Directors at the first meeting held each calendar year. The nominated and elected Vice President must be one of the Board of Directors listed in Article 3.1 above. The Vice President's duties are to perform all assignments as directed by the President; and act in place of the President at such time when the President is unable to assume the duties of office. The newly elected Vice President will assume such office on a yearly basis. The Vice President is not permitted to vote on matters before the Board of Directors as a Vice President. The individual holding the office of Vice President is allowed one vote on matters before the Board of Directors as a result of holding one of the offices described in Article 3.1.

3.3 Duties

Officers shall have the authority and responsibility to organize and conduct activities within their prescribed areas and in keeping with the 3RVS mission. These activities are subject to review by the Board of Directors and may be modified by a majority vote thereof.

4.0 Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall consist of all nine (9) elected officers for the operating year and shall function as the governing body of 3RVS. The Board of Directors is empowered to decide issues and act on behalf of 3RVS. All issues before the Board shall be resolved through a majority five (5) vote, except as described in section 3.0 and 5.0 of this document. The Board of Directors shall meet as needed at least monthly, at a reasonable time and place determined by the President. The President shall provide notice of the meeting to all officers giving reasonable opportunity for all to attend.

5.0 Expenditures

Any matter that involves the expenditure, or obligation to expend, is subject to the approval of the Board of Directors and/or a membership vote. There are three distinct levels of approval:

Level One

Level One approval consists of a Board majority of five (5) or more, and applies to routine expenditures above the threshold established in the bylaws for routine matters and below 25% of the total treasury. This level also applies to any non-routine expenditure of less than the non-routine threshold specified in the bylaws of this document.

Level Two

Level Two approval can be obtained in two ways:

1. A two-thirds Board member majority
2. A five (5) Board member majority in conjunction with a regular membership meeting simple voting majority. This level of approval applies to routine expenditures in excess of 25% of the 3RVS treasury at the time of the expenditure. It also applies to non-routine expenditure between the non-routine expense bylaw threshold and less than 25% of the treasury.

Level Three

Level Three approval consists of a two-thirds Board member majority and a regular meeting voting majority. It applies to any non-routine expenditure in excess of 25% of the 3RVS treasury at the time of the expenditure.

Routine expenditures of less than the Routine Expenditure Threshold established in the By Laws may be authorized by the President unless a majority of the Board of Directors have voted to not make such expenditure.

6.0 Affiliations

3RVS shall be a member of the generally recognized governing body for bicycle racing in the United States, as applied for by the Racing Director. 3RVS shall also maintain membership in other bicycling organizations, as approved by the Board of Directors.

7.0 Club Colors

The official club colors of 3RVS are yellow and black.

8.0 Amendment Procedures

8.1 Constitutional Amendment Procedure

All proposed amendments to this constitution shall be presented in writing and discussed at a regular membership meeting. If the proposed amendment is supported by at least five (5) eligible voting members, it shall be published in the following month's newsletter.

The proposed amendment shall then be read, discussed and voted on by eligible voting members at the next monthly meeting. The amendment shall pass and be enacted if and only if it receives a favorable vote of at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting membership in attendance at that meeting.

8.2 Bylaw amendment Procedure

All proposed amendments to the 3RVS Bylaws shall be presented in writing to the Board of Directors. If the proposed amendment is supported by at least five (5) Board members, it shall be published in the following month's newsletter. The proposed amendment shall then be read, discussed and voted on by eligible voting members at the next monthly meeting. The amendment shall pass and be enacted if and only if it receives a favorable majority vote by the membership in attendance at that meeting.

Bylaws

1.0 Scope

The purpose of this document is to supply specific details that are not in, but required by the Constitution of 3RVS. This document is subject to, and controlled by the 3RVS Constitution.

1.1 Dues

The dues required for membership privileges as created by the Constitution are annual, from January 1 to December 31 inclusive. Non-members who join after September 1st will have their membership extended through the following calendar year. Dues are established as follows:

Individual $20.00
Family $30.00
Organizational $40.00

1.2 Meetings

Regular meetings for the members of 3RVS shall be held the first Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at a location designated by the Board of Directors and published in the preceding newsletter. A meeting for an individual month may be rescheduled, relocated or omitted with the approval of majority of the Board of Directors.

1.3 Routine and Non-routine Expenditures

Expenditures are governed by Article 5.0 of the 3RVS Constitution. Pursuant to the constitution the following expenditure thresholds are established:

Non-routine expenditures are any expenditures that is are not defined to be routine. The threshold, as depicted in Article 5.0 for non-routine expenditures is three hundred dollars ($300.00)

Routine expenditures are those normally associated with the activities of the club and include those similar in character and amount to those which have been made in the past. The threshold, as depicted in Article 5.0 for routine expenditures is three hundred dollars ($300.00). Examples of this type of expenditure include, but are not limited to, expenses involved with:

Official Cycling Events
Annual End of Year Party
